Information for contributors

Prospective authors should submit copies of papers (preferably in duplicate), typed, and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper. They should retain a copy for the purpose of checking proofs.

Contributions should be sent to The Editors, Studies in History & Philosophy of Science, Department of History & Philosophy of Science, Free School Lane, Cambridge CB2 3RH, England.

Manuscripts should not normally exceed 25,000 words (excluding notes). Any diagrams necessary should be carefully drawn and fully labelled in pencil; captions should appear on a separate sheet.

The Editors may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographic conventions of the journal. Authors will receive proofs which should be checked carefully and returned as soon as possible.

Titles of books and periodicals, and foreign words (except where quoted), should be written in italics.

Specialized symbols and abbreviations should be defined at their first appearance.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes, and should be typed, double-spaced, on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

1. A. Koyré, Newtonian Studies (London: Chapman & Hall, 1965), p. 43.
2. W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), p. 242.
3. Op. cit. note 1, p. 54.
4. W. P. D. Wightman, 'David Gregory's Commentary on Newton's "Principia" ' Nature, 179 (1957), 393.

Authors of papers published in Studies will receive 25 offprints free of charge. Further offprints may be ordered from Pergamon Press, Headington Hill Hall, Headington, Oxford OX3 0BW, by completing the order form enclosed with proofs for correction.
